

Online Scams Targeting Seniors in New Mexico

FBI IC3 2025 Data · Updated May 2026 · seniors.hcsk.org

$43.6M TOTAL LOSSES 2025 (60+)	560 VICTIMS 2025 (60+)	+1,537% 5-YEAR GROWTH	$77,857 AVERAGE LOSS PER VICTIM
--	---	--	---

New Mexico ranks #30 nationally for total reported elder fraud losses — among the most affected mid-size states. New Mexico is one of the fastest-growing states for elder fraud in the country, with a +1,537% increase over five years.

Figures reflect adults 60 and over reporting to the FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center across four major scam categories: investment scams, tech-support scams, romance scams, and government impersonation. The FTC estimates that fewer than 5% of fraud victims report to a government entity — true losses are likely 5-15 times the reported figure.

Top Scam Categories Targeting Seniors

- Investment Scams — including cryptocurrency and "pig butchering" fraud. The #1 elder fraud category nationally ($3.42B in 2025).
- Tech Support Scams — fake "your computer has a virus" calls, pop-ups, and emails ($1.07B in 2025).
- Government Impersonation — fake IRS, SSA, Medicare, USCIS, or law-enforcement callers ($428M in 2025).
- Romance & Confidence Scams — relationships built online that turn into money requests ($609M in 2025).

Red Flags That Signal a Scam

- An unsolicited call, text, email, or postcard with urgency ("Act now or your benefits will be suspended.")
- A request for payment by gift card, wire transfer, cryptocurrency, prepaid debit card, or cash by mail
- A demand for your full Social Security number, Medicare number, or bank account information
- A threat of arrest, deportation, or legal action if you don't pay immediately
- A request to keep the contact secret from family, friends, your bank, or law enforcement

What to Do

- Hang up. A real agency will not be angry.
- Pay nothing in response to an unsolicited contact. No real government office asks for gift cards, wire transfers, or cryptocurrency.
- Call someone you trust — a family member, friend, or neighbor — before you send money.
- Verify directly by calling the agency at the number on its official website (not the number the caller gave you).
- If money has already moved, call your bank immediately — they may be able to recall a wire within 24-72 hours.

Where to Report

DOJ National Elder Fraud Hotline:
1-833-FRAUD-11 (1-833-372-8311) — free, multilingual

FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center:
ic3.gov

Federal Trade Commission:
reportfraud.ftc.gov

Eldercare Locator (Adult Protective Services):
1-800-677-1116 — 200+ language interpreters

New Mexico Attorney General Consumer

- A romantic interest you met online who avoids video calls and starts asking for money

Protection:

Search "New Mexico Attorney General consumer protection" or call your county sheriff's non-emergency line

Watch for recovery scams. If you have been scammed once, criminal groups will contact you with "recovery services" promising to help recover stolen money — for a fee. No legitimate organization charges to recover stolen funds. Every such offer is itself a scam.

---

Source: FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center, 2025 Annual Report; HCSK Inc., Stolen Trust 2026 analysis · Updated: May 2026 · License: CC-BY 4.0 — share freely with attribution

Source URL: seniors.hcsk.org/for-partners/ · Press contact: press@hcsk.org · Partner inquiries: partners@hcsk.org